CONTENT SUBMISSION

Clients may submit:

Photos | Video Clips | Audio Clips | Logos | Branding Assets | Event Graphics

You may also provide notes identifying specific moments, people, messages or clips you would like highlighted.

Content should be submitted digitally through the file-sharing method provided by Crystalline Productions.

PLEASE NOTE

Pricing is based on editing client-provided content from one event, campaign or content collection.

Clients are responsible for providing usable, organized source files and identifying any must-use content.

Final video quality will depend on the quality and resolution of the original content submitted.

Advanced animation, extensive audio repair, long-form video editing, custom motion graphics and extensive revisions are not included and may require a custom quote.

Turnaround begins once all content, instructions and required assets have been received.

Need your content sooner? Rush editing may be available for an additional fee.
